

CALL TO WORSHIP

Lord Christ: our Holy, Leading, and Loving God:
We come seeking a path,

through the storms of life.

We come thirsting for living water,

in an urban desert of mirages.

We come longing for signs of life,

in a crowded and lonely city.

We come hungering for righteousness,

in a land where many fridges are full, yet many souls are empty.

Fill us with Your love.

Fill us with Your Spirit.

Let us breathe in Your presence.

Let us breathe in Your life.

Let us feel Your wounded, healed, and healing touch.

Amen.
