

Call to Worship

Adapted from Psalm 77:1-3,11-15

Let us cry aloud to God,

that the LORD might hear us.

In the day of our trouble, we seek the Lord;

in the night when our hands are stretched out without wearying;

When our souls refuse to be comforted.

When we think of God, and groan;

When we pray, and our spirits faint.

Let us call to mind the deeds of the Lord;

Let us remember God's wonders of old.

Let us ponder all of God's work,

and reflect upon the LORD's mighty deeds.

Your way, O God, is holy.

You are the God who works wonders;

You have displayed Your glory among the peoples.

With Your strong arm - and Your nail-scarred hands - You have redeemed Your people.

Let us remember – and give thanks!

Thanks be to God!

Amen.

*Adapted by Rev. Dr. Todd Thomason
viaexmachina.com*

