

Call to Worship

Remembering Those Who Served

Lord Christ, we gather to worship and to remember:

To remember who You are;

The life that is the light of all people

To remember who we are in You

Loved and forgiven

We remember Your commandment:

To love one another as You have loved us

We remember Your death

By Your stripes we are healed

We remember Your resurrection

O death, where is your sting? O death, where is your victory?

We remember the world for which You lived, died, and live again

A world brimming with wonder and beauty; a world marred by pain and strife, injustice and indifference

We remember the calamity and destruction of war

We remember those who fought and suffered valiantly to defend our nation

Lord, we remember

May we learn from the past and embrace the present so that we might realize Your future.

Amen.

Composed by Rev. Dr. Todd Thomason viaexmachina.com